VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1868. NO. 160.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE Comptroller of Public Accounts OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING SEPT. 30, 1867

STATEMENT

Showing the gross tax for the year 1866, derived from the several subjects of taxation in the counties of the State, the returns of which are on file in this Department, including the counties of Iredell and Robeson, the taxes of which were settled prior to October 1st, 1866. The Sheriffs of the counties of Halifax and Orange failed to make settlement within the fiscal year, ending September 30th, 1867.

OVER THE MESSRS. TUCKER & CO's STORE.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary

The machine in question is simple compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 65
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1868

THE ALABAMA CONSTITUTION.

The bill, reported by telegraph, on yesterday, as having been introduced by Senator Sherman, of Ohio, with reference to the Alabama Constitution, is a virtual admission of the failure of Congressional reconstruction, as provided for by the Act of March 2nd., 1867, and the Acts supplemental thereto.

Those Acts prescribed that a majority of registered voters should be necessary to the ratification or rejection of the State Constitutions. In Alabama, there has been a clear defeat of the instrument, and an ex post facto bill is brought forward to cover up the failure in the Radical plans. It is in perfect keeping with the perfidy of Congress, will doubtless be passed, and will surprise no one.

The question arises: Since all opposition to, amounting to the rejection of, the bogus Constitutions, set up by these mongrel and irresponsible Conventions, is futile,—inasmuch as it is the purpose of Congress to validate them, whether they receive few votes or many,—is it worth while to organize for their defeat? We reply—yes. Let us throw the odium of forcing an odious Constitution, upon an unwilling people, upon Congress. Let it not be alleged, to our disgrace, now and hereafter, that we voluntarily bowed our heads to receive the degrading yoke which was prepared for us. Let us not commit self destruction, because we are threatened with a violent death,—thereby adding to the catastrophe guilt of soul and shame of memory. Let us vindicate our self-respect, pride of character, and love of liberty, by throwing from us, as far as depends upon our own agency, the polluted thing. Let us assert, while we have an opportunity left us of doing so, our right to declare for ourselves what shall be the nature of our own organic law, independently of dictation or coercion from any quarter. In one word, let us be true to ourselves, though the Congress of the United States is false to its own stipulations, perfidious to its obligations and tyrannical in its usurpations.

Besides, our experience in the late canvass, on the question of Convention, should admonish us of the danger of any division in our plans of action, or any indifference as to their execution. If lukewarmness is counselled or felt in the matter of voting on the infamous Constitution which is being cobbled-up by the so-called Convention, now in session, it will be difficult, if not impossible, to induce the people to come out and vote for or against candidates for the various offices which are to be filled, and for which a horde of greedy cormorants, Yankee, negro, and native mean white, are clamoring. Even if a rejected Constitution is forced upon us, we may at least disappoint the calculations of the greedy mongrel crew, who are already, in anticipation, feasting upon the spoils. It will, at least, for the present, and until things take a better turn, be some consolation for an odious Constitution, that the power of making its letter more oppressive and galling may be wrested from the hands of its unscrupulous and malevolent authors. We can, at least, if we will, save a part of the character of North Carolina, by preventing its government from falling into the hands of such creatures. SHALL WE NOT DO IT? From the seaboard to the mountains, there will be but one response among the true white men of the State. Catching the spirit which animated the late glorious Convention, they will organize for the great work before them, with a brave determination. That is all that is necessary to success.

YESTERDAY.—We have ceased to feel any interest, if we ever felt any, in the deliberations of the so-called Convention. It is patent that it will be as offensive and iniquitous as Radical ingenuity can devise, and that is saying enough.

We wish, however, simply to call attention to yesterday's proceedings. It will be seen that the concern manufactured a lawyer out of every man, white or black, however illiterate, who can bolster up a character and pay a small tax-fee. Negro Judges will come next.

That part of the report of the Committee on the Legislature, apportioning the Senatorial Districts, was adopted. It divides the State into fifty Districts, arranged apparently with no regard to convenience or homogeneousness, bases representation exclusively on population, and breaks down the property qualification of the Senator.—Thus roll on the wheels of crazy "progress," crushing all that is wise, venerable and good.

We have been asked why we do not publish the reports of the various Committees. For the reason that the whole of the proposed Constitution is at present in a state of confusion that is almost inextricable.—When the whole instrument shall be "perfected," we shall publish it, and our readers will then be able to take in, at one broad survey, the whole of the meditated mischief and ruin.

MILEAGE.—Our correspondent "Q," whose note we published, on yesterday, and the real object of which, in our haste, we did not perceive, requests us to state, that he only designed to call our attention to one point, and that was to the amount of mileage which he understood members of the Convention were presenting certificates for,—some of them "going it" as if they were entitled to pay for "traveling around their elbows to get to their thumbs," instead of estimating the number of miles "by the most usual road," from their residences to the seat of government. The point which our correspondent makes will be a good one for the canvass against any offender.

GRANT AND SHERMAN.

The awkward and unfortunate position in which Gen. Grant has placed himself before the country, and the severe condemnation which falls upon him from the lips of honorable men every where, shall not deter us from doing him justice. Nothing is more common, in the conduct of a war, than that real merit should be overslaughed, and the credit, which is due to those who occupy subordinate positions, given to others in higher station. This was done repeatedly during the late war in both armies, and nothing has been more common, since the war, than to give credit to those who were entitled to praise, on account of other acts, for acts which were particularly meritorious in others.

The position of Gen. Grant necessarily secured to him the credit of bringing the war to a triumphant issue. Yet, we presume, there is not an intelligent man in the South who does not know, that no man or army did as much to break the back-bone of our cause as Gen. Sherman and his army. It has been generally supposed that Sherman's campaign through Georgia, and South and North Carolina, was devised or planned by Grant, though executed by Sherman. The proof, however, shows that Gen. Grant was opposed to that movement. It was Sherman's campaign that first aroused the Southern people to the certainty of defeat. It was that movement that opened our eyes to the possibility of having all the supplies cut off from Gen. Lee, with no sufficient force to contest the ground with Sherman, that filled the South with paleness and dread, and that caused our troops to desert by thousands, and to go home, convinced that the cause was lost.

The following statement of facts, by the National Intelligencer, will be sustained by the intelligent people of the South, who can never forget the terror which Sherman's advance through the country produced:

"Nobody denies that Gen. Grant did his duty as a soldier faithfully, but he did it no better than thousands of others who, proscribed by Radicalism, are in exile from their proper position, and those who now lie mouldering in unremembered graves, while his praises are loudly chaunted, and honors until lately crowded upon his acceptance. He was the fortunate commander when Gen. Lee surrendered seven thousand muskets to a grand army of veterans, equal in numbers, efficiency, and courage to any upon which the sun had ever shown in actual life and death struggle. But the back bone of the rebellion had been broken long before Gen. Grant, after a year's delay, began the final march upon Richmond, by the memorable campaign of General Sherman through Tennessee, Georgia, and the Carolinas. That campaign was made, as the public documents prove, against the advice and policy of Gen. Grant, and it was decisive of the fate of the rebellion. And if Gen. Grant had delayed a little longer for Gen. Sherman to come up, or even had taken another direction than he did take, Lee would have been forced to surrender without a blow, and 80,000 heroes would now be alive, who fell in that terrible march, in the course of which, as at Cold Harbor, naked infantry were hurled unsupported against impregnable works."

PRIVILEGES AND ELECTIONS.—This Committee, in the so called Convention, have manifested some little diligence in ascertaining whether the seats of such Conservatives as Mr. Williams, of Sampson, and Mr. Marler, of Yadkin, are properly held by those gentlemen. We do not object to any fair investigation of the claims of any Conservative. Should truth require that the seat of every Conservative should be contested, we should not complain. But ought not the rule to work both ways? We have heard no inquiry into the right by which any Radical holds his seat. Are Mr. C. J. Cowles, the President, Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, and others that might be named, entitled to seats, according to the Reconstruction Acts? We have heard the question mooted as to the right of several of the Radical delegates, and yet, on this point, the Committee on Privileges and Elections slumber.

Mr. Cowles, the President of the Convention, we understand, convinced of his disloyalty under President Johnson's proclamation, applied for and obtained a pardon, because he came under the first exception. We are told that the Registers of his County refused to register his name, and yet he became a candidate and was elected to the Convention. Were these facts presented to Gen. Canby, and did he, knowing them, determine that Mr. Cowles was entitled to his seat? We doubt it. What will Congress think of the acts of a body, whose deliberations are presided over by one, who, according to its own test of loyalty, is still a "rebel," setting aside the Executive pardon? Mr. Cowles was a Union man, no doubt, but not half as good a Union man as many others who are not recognised by the Radical party as being now loyal, because they do not support the Radical programme.

ARKANSAS IN THE LEAD.—The telegraph announces that Arkansas has made quicker work, in making a Constitution, than any of the Southern States. Her Convention has been in session but a short time, yet they have completed the Constitution, which goes a step beyond any of the "so-called."—It goes in for general suffrage to the negroes and to the women of the State, but disfranchises all men disfranchised by the Reconstruction Acts and also those who oppose the Constitution. What delectable Republican Governments the Southern States must have, under Radical rule, when the white men, capable of administering government, are generally disfranchised, and when the negroes, men and women, all vote! Call you this Republican?

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.—The Conservatives of Wayne County will meet in Goldsboro, on Tuesday next, for the purpose of organizing for the approaching campaign, and to ratify the proceedings of the late State Conservative Convention. We hope to see this excellent example imitated throughout the State. Close and compact organization, among the true white men of the State, is all that is necessary to preserve us from the horrors of negro supremacy.

PURITAN BLOOD DYING OUT.—A Dr. Nathan Allen recently read a paper before the American Social Science Association, at Boston, in which he maintains that the original Puritan population is rapidly dying out in Massachusetts, and that, but for immigration and its natural increase, the State would soon be depopulated. In 1765, nearly one half of the population was under 15 years of age, whereas, at present, only one fifth of the population is under that age. He also asserted that only about one third of the children in the United States belonged to native families. These facts will be received by the opponents of the Puritan stock as gratifying, but their correctness may be doubted.

There are other causes for the depreciation of the Puritanic stock, in New England, than those mentioned by Dr. Allen. The prevalence of Puritanic sentiment in American politics shows very clearly that Puritanic blood has been largely diffused throughout the Northern and Western States, and present appearances show that there is a strong sprinkling of it in the South.

The great, absorbing characteristic of the Yankee or Puritan blood is the love of money and the spirit of adventure to obtain it. This passion is much stronger than that of the desire for the social state. Wherever it predominates, it overrides and subdues the inclination to form even marital relations. Hence, nothing is more common, among New Englanders, than for them to marry and forthwith leave their wives for a three years' voyage at sea, or a five years' residence in California—"gold prospecting,"—or several years' peddling in the South or the North-Western States. So many young men abandon New England, at early life, seeking fortunes, that the old maids in every township are as "thick as blackberries" and must content themselves to live in "single blessedness," or unite their destinies with the foreign population. But it is, nevertheless, manifest that, impure as the Puritanic blood becomes by its union with foreigners, it has steadily maintained its hold upon the worst features of the original stock, so as to have filled New England with its isms, its factiousness and its fanaticism.

GEN. CANBY'S ORDER.

The following order has been issued by Gen. Canby and has been laid before the Public Treasurer. Acting in accordance with his own judgment and the counsel of others whose opinions he respects, we learn that the Public Treasurer will obey Gen. Canby's order.

HDQR'S 2nd. MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C.,
Feb. 12th, 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 20.

The Constitutional Convention assembled in North Carolina, under the authority of the laws of the United States, having, in conformity with the eighth Section of the law of March 23, 1867, (supplementary to the law of March 2, 1867, "To provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,") by an Ordinance adopted in Convention on the sixth day of February, 1868, provided for the levy and collection of a tax of one twentieth of one per cent on the real and personal property in the State, to raise monies to pay the expenses of said Convention; and having directed that the tax so provided for shall be paid into the Treasury of the State in reimbursement for advances made from the said Treasury, for the purpose of defraying the current expenses of the Convention, the payment of its officers, members and contingent accounts: It is ordered,

First, That the assessors of taxes in the State of North Carolina shall add to the assessments already made or about to be made for the year 1868, under the authority of the laws of the State, the tax levied under the ordinance before cited, and the collectors of taxes will proceed to collect the same at the time and in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State for State taxes, and pay the same into the Treasury of the State.

Second, That the Treasurer of the State is hereby authorized and directed to pay the per diem and mileage of the delegates, the compensation of the officers, and the contingent expenses of the Convention, upon the warrants of the President, in the usual form.

By command of Bvt. Maj. Gen. E. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aide-de-Camp, A. A. A. G.

THE "MACHINE" RUNS SLOWLY.—The "so called" Convention has been in session a full month. Not a single article of the Constitution has yet been perfected, we believe. The expenses of the "so called," thus far, exceed $40,000,—and nothing yet done. It is hard "to get the sow from the wash, when she once puts her nose to it," is a homely saying, but it applies with great force to the "truly loil" men of this Convention. The Head Centre of the Leagues, we believe, fixed the limit of the session at the 22nd. February, but if he don't crack his whip at them sharply, the Ides of March will still find them at the "wash."—The only possible means of breaking them off, will be for Gen. Canby to fix a limit to their drafts upon the Treasury, and send them home in time to get "ready for the crap."

A SIGNIFICANT STEP—MR. JOHNSON TO BE IMPEACHED.—The House of Representatives took a step yesterday, under the lead of Mr. Thaddeus Stevens, of the most extraordinary character. The papers and evidence in the impeachment matter were taken from the Committee on the Judiciary, to which such a subject would naturally and appropriately belong, under the rules of the House, and given to the Committee on Reconstruction, with "leave to report at any time." The indications now are that the present body of heated and violent partisans in Congress are about to make their boldest and most fearful experiment on the patience of the country, which has endured them so long—these Jacobins hoping, we doubt not, that the people do not care enough about their Government and Constitution to make a struggle, or risk anything for their preservation against the regular army wielded by General Grant.—Nat. Intel. 11th.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Senator Wilson, who left about a week since to stump New Hampshire in the interest of the Radical candidates, writes back that he has made several speeches, and before large crowds. There is, however, such a lack of enthusiasm, and it is a work of such an up-hill nature, that more assistance is needed, and will be given in a few days.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

THURSDAY, Feb. 13, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Ashley, of the Convention.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Galloway (negro) presented a letter from the "Republican Committee," of New Hanover county, instructing their delegates to vote against all propositions for a general amnesty. Referred to the Committee on Suffrage.

Mr. Candler, a petition for divorce, from Matilda Anderson, of Madison county.—Referred.

The President presented an anonymous communication from Philadelphia, in regard to money loaned the State by Northern men,—praying that the Convention will take some measures to pay interest to those holding bonds of the State. Went under the table.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Sweet, an ordinance in relation to collections for the city of Newbern. Referred.

Mr. Rich, an ordinance for establishing a Land and Immigration agency in New York—said agency to have at its head a Commissioner, who shall hold his office for four years, with a salary of $2500 a year.—Referred.

Mr. Tourgee, by consent, presented a petition from Randolph county, which was referred.

Leaves of absences were granted to Hyman, (negro,) Eppes, (negro,) and Mr. Moore.

Mr. Stilly, a resolution requesting Congress to reduce the tax on distilled spirits other than from grain. Referred.

Mr. Rodman, an ordinance on Relief.—Ordered to be printed.

CALENDAR.

Mr. Abbott's resolution, in regard to the use of the Previous Question, offered some days ago, was considered and adopted.

Mr. Tourgee's resolution, providing for two sessions, on and after Friday, the 14th., at 10 A. M., and 7½ P. M., was adopted.

Mr. Forkner's ordinance, instructing the Judiciary Committee to report an article allowing citizens to practice and plead in the Courts of this State, upon establishing a good moral character and upon payment of the fees, was next taken up.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that as the law stood now, a man could plead his own cause in Court; but he who did it, without any knowledge of law whatever, generally found out that he had a fool for a client.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, was also opposed to it. He did not wish to offer a bonus to ignorance.

Mr. Forkner said that, by an ordinance recently passed, men from other States could come here, and, proving a good character and paying the fees, be admitted to the bar. He wished to place our citizens on an equal footing.

Mr. Abbott favored it, likewise.

The vote being taken, the ordinance was adopted.

Mr. Watts introduced an ordinance, by permission, for the relief of the people; which went over, under the rules.

SPECIAL ORDER—PREAMBLE AND BILL OF RIGHTS.

Mr. Sweet said that the Chairman was sick and moved to postpone it, until to-morrow, at 11 o'clock. Agreed to.

Mr. Sweet then moved to take into consideration the report of the Committee on Legislature, which was recommitted to them some days ago, and also the substitute for section 4th., regulating the apportionment of Senatorial Districts.

Sections 1, 2 and 3, of the majority report were then adopted.

Section 4th: Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend, by apportioning the Senate according to the apportionment of the Convention of 1865, requiring a property qualification for a seat in that body. Mr. G. said:

The substitute I propose makes numbers the basis of representation for the House of Commons, and the taxes paid into the public Treasury the basis for the Senate. I believe that there should be some protection for those Counties which pay the largest portion of our taxes, against that wild system of expenditures which will no doubt ensue under the new regime. Some of the delegates seem to think the question of suffrage is before us, and that a freehold qualification is proposed. I will state, (and in this all the Conservatives agree with me,) that I am opposed to any freehold or property qualification for any person that I would allow to vote in North Carolina. The Almighty has, for some wise purpose of his own, made a distinction between the white and black races, and that distinction I am opposed to abolishing at the ballot-box.—That, however, is not the matter before us, but the question is simply whether you will not give to a County, or District, paying a large amount of taxes, some restraint upon other Counties which, with large populations, pay but a small amount of taxes.—This is the check allowed by our present Constitution, but as its destruction has been determined by this Convention, it is needless for me to argue against it.

Mr. Sweet opposed the amendment. It was anti-Republican, (the usual cry,) &c.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, expatiated at some length, and, during his discourse, took occasion to resent Mr. Pool's allusion to him some days ago. [The aforesaid allusion being in the nature of a reflection upon Mr. McD's legal attainments.]

Mr. Congleton said all such notions about property qualification should be buried here, to-day.

Mr. French, of Chowan, said it was an infamous doctrine, handed down from the dark ages. Only three States now cling to it, and to-day we will make the number less by one. He wanted population only to be the basis.

Mr. Hodnett favored the property qualification for the Senate, and alluded to his resolution to that effect, introduced some time ago. (Mr. H's able remarks will appear hereafter.)

Hood (negro) opposed the amendment.

So, also, did Mr. French, of Bladen.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said the gentlemen were trying to place him in a false position. He did not propose to require a freehold for everything, but he thought some property qualification necessary, in at least one branch of the General Assembly. The gentleman's (Mr. French, of Chowan,) expression, in his allusion to the great Pacific Railroad, exactly illustrated his ideas of the course we should pursue towards the Radicals upon this floor. Let them have a full swing and clear course, and they will "either run to h— or California."

Mr. Marler agreed with Mr. G. and thought if any other course was pursued, the tax payer and property holder would not have sufficient protection.

After a great deal of debate, and innumerable amendments and propositions in regard to the apportionment of the districts, contained in the supplementary report as to the fourth section of the original majority report, the whole supplementary report, as regards that section, was, on motion of Mr. Jones, of Washington, finally adopted.

Sections 9 to 26, inclusive, of the majority report, were adopted.

Section 27 was amended, by striking out, after the word "affirmation," in the 2d line, down to the word "and," in the 6th line, and inserting "that he will support the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina."

Section 29 was adopted—making the time for holding elections the 1st Thursday in [illegible].

Mr. Rodman moved, as an amendment, the following addition, which was carried: "But the General Assembly may change the time of holding the elections. The first election shall be held when the vote shall be taken on the adoption of this Constitution by the voters of the State, and the General Assembly, then elected, shall meet on the 30th day after the approval thereof by the Congress of the United States, if it fall not on a Sunday; but if it should so fall, then on the day after. And the members then elected shall hold their seats until their successors are elected at a regular election."

On motion, the House then adjourned.

BUTLER'S WAR AGAINST GRANT.—There is no doubt but the intention of Gen. Butler in looking up the evidence in proof of Gen. Grant's reported public exhibitions of inebriety is to wage a relentless war upon the reputation of the General-in-Chief, whenever he shall be presented to the people as the republican candidate for President. It is asserted by those who profess to know the views of Butler, that if Grant should be the republican nominee, Butler will be found working in the interest of the Conservative party, as, it is said, his animosity to Grant is so inveterate that the party rallying cry of "principles, not men," will be reversed in his political creed, and he will manifest a greater degree of solicitude in regard to the candidate than to the principles which he may represent. Some of the more zealous republicans are expressing not a little concern about these reported movements of Butler, and they seem to think that his influence against Grant will be chiefly exerted among the citizens of African descent in the Southern States. It has even been suggested that, in case Butler should undertake to injure Grant in the estimation of the negroes, Gen. Howard will be called on to counteract Butler's influence, by the promulgation of a series of circulars, prepared with a view to instructing the freedmen how to exercise, in a way beneficial to themselves, the priviliges of the elective franchise.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

RECONSTRUCTION IN FLORIDA.—Solon Robinson, wool dyed Radical, corresponding for the Tribune, writes thus from Tallahassee:

"I wish I could write 'There is peace, quiet, order, and honest intent to work, and make a Constitution for the people—the whole people of the State.' But I cannot. For more than a week this wild tumult has been raging. The hall is more like a gladiatorial arena than a sober Convention of delegates to form a Constitution for a State that is almost in a condition of anarchy."

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here, and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WAKE.

A meeting of the Conservative citizens of Wake County, for the purpose of ratifying the action of the late Convention and for organization, will be held on Monday next, at 1 o'clock, P. M., in the Court House in this City. All are invited to attend. By order of

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

NEGRO JUDGES.—The effect of giving the election of Judges to the people, including 60,000 or 70,000 negro voters, may be, and probably will be, in some of the Eastern Judicial Districts, to put negro Judges (so-called) on the bench. We may look for a rapid importation of negro lawyers from the North, who will become aspirants for Judicial station. Who knows but that, in the course of events, a negro may occupy the seat of Gaston and Ruffin on the Supreme Court bench of North Carolina? This is Radicalism, which the white people of North Carolina are called upon to support! "The nigger" is the key stone of the party. Negro Judges, negro Governors, negro "Melish,"—

"Nothing but nigger everywhere."

THERE WAS A manifest anxiety, in the so called, on Wednesday, to "show off" before the District Commander. Tourgee was not alone in the matter, though it may be he "piled on the agony" a little stronger than any of the rest, and drove the General from the Hall. But Mr. Cowles, also, put the best foot foremost. We must confess that his exordium was rather tame, but the peroration was magnifique. Here both are, verbatim et punctuatim, as taken down for "de archives of gravity," by the official keeper thereof:

EXORDIUM

"General, in behalf of this Convention, I bid you welcome in behalf of the loyal people of North Carolina, I extend to you a cordial greeting."

PERORATION.

"When it is done—the Constitution framed, I fondly believe it will be a model of republicanism, and a firm foundation on which to erect a temple of liberty as enduring as the mountains, that tower to the skies on our western borders."

That last "figger" is said to have lifted the General and Staff out of their respective boots. Mr. Cowles, it is said, has worn a satisfied air ever since, as if he were conscious of having atoned for all his former Presidential short-comings, and redeemed himself in the estimation of his sneering Yankee brethren. We congratulate thee, friend Cowles!

GEN. CANBY, we learn, had sufficiently recovered from the attack of Tourgeeism, with which he was suddenly seized, in Convention, on Wednesday morning, to take supper with Gen. Miles, F. B., the same evening.

GRANT.—The President's last letter to Grant, a telegraphic abstract of which was published on Wednesday, is before us in full. We hope that we may be able to find space for it. It is perfectly crushing, and makes a smaller man of Grant than he ever appeared before. It convicts him of treachery, duplicity and insubordination.

"THE LAND WE LOVE."—We copy from the National Intelligencer the following very handsome compliment to Gen. Hill's admirable magazine:

"This monthly magazine, which, under the editorship of General D. H. Hill, has from the beginning been marked for its excellent judgment and good temper in dealing with exciting topics, as well as for its fine literary taste and manifest ability, has been steadily increasing in its strength, till it is one of the very best magazines of its kind in the South. The number for the current month, which is the fourth of the fourth volume, is admirable in its variety of interesting contributions.

The editorial article entitled "The Last Dispatch," which is a vindication of the military career of General Hill, against the strictures of Mr. E. A. Pollard, is a model of dignified, forcible writing, thoughtful, philosophical, and finished, and thoroughly conclusive in its argument."

YARBOROUGH HOTEL.—During our recent visit to Raleigh, we were the guest of that prince of landlords, Blair, of the Yarborough House. To say that Blair was himself is but to tell our readers that we were excellently well cared for. Overcrowded as was the Yarborough during the meeting of the Conservative Convention, none could complain of any want of attention, or the quality or quantity of the bill of fare.—Wil. Journal.

Mr. W. A. Falconer, of Petersburg, has opened store in Raleigh, N. C. The sons of the Cockade are being scattered far and wide, but, wherever they go, we believe they will give a good account of themselves and do honor to their native place.—Petersburg Index.

For the Sentinel.

Our glorious Convention are a little puzzled to know what sort of an oath they must cobble up, to exclude gentlemen from participation in a government which declares in its very first article that all are born free and equal. It does not much matter what the oath is, it will be sure to disfranchise nearly all the honest worth and talent in the land. But there will be plenty found willing to forswear themselves, among the 30,000 now claimed by the 'loilists'—enough at least to fill all the offices. Their consciences will give them but little trouble, judging by the readiness which some of our high civil officers have already evinced to swallow iron-clad oaths for bread. They seem to digest it well—and look very serene. Whether they find thorns in their pillows at night, is only known to themselves. All that men have will they give—sometimes—for the means of living.

In these reformed times when swearing is made so easy and killing is no murder, (save in exceptional cases,) we find old history pretty well repeated. Several ages ago there was a race of hard, cross-grained fanatics, who got temporary possession of the British government, and played some very fantastic tricks. They are said to have adopted a new code on swearing, by which oaths, official and otherwise, could be taken to great advantage. "What signifies the kissing of a book," said one of these precious saints, "with a calf-skin cover, and a pasteboard stiffening, betwixt a man's lips and the text?"

"They," says Bishop Sanderson, "rest secure, absolving themselves from all guilt and fear of perjury, and think they have excellently provided for themselves and consciences, if, during the act of swearing, they can make any shift to defend themselves, either with some equivocation or mental reservation, or by forcing upon the words some subtle interpretation; or, after they are sworn, they can find some loophole or artificial evasion whereby such art may be used with the oath that, the words remaining, the meaning may be eluded with sophism, and the sense utterly lost."

Cowley makes mention of "an equivocation office, where all manner of evasions, shifts, distinctions, explanations and double entendres were exposed to sale!"

Foules, in his history of Wicked Plots, "that the swearer is obliged neither to the meaning of the prescriber of the oath, nor to his own meaning, but as the authority shall afterwards interpret it."

In the "Vicar of Bray" some one is made to say, "no wonder they should impose new oaths, when they had broken all the old."

"I took so many oaths before,
That now without remorse
I take all oaths the State can make,
As merely things of course."

A poet of that age puts this in their record:

"Oaths are but words, and words but wind,
Too feeble implements to bind,
And hold with deeds proportion, so
As shadows to a substance do.
Then when they strive for place, 'tis fit
The weaker vessel should submit.
We're not commanded to forbear
Indefinitely, at all, to swear;
But to swear idly, and in vain,
Without self-interest or gain;
For breaking of an oath, and lying
Is but a kind of self-denying—
A saint-like virtue, and from hence
Some have broken oaths—by Providence;
Some to the glory of the Lord,
Perjured themselves, and broke their word;
And this the constant rule and practice
Of all our late apostles' (Qu. apostates?) acts is."

L'Estrange tells the following apposite story: "A gentleman that had a suit in Chancery was called on by his counsel to put in his answer, for fear of incurring a contempt. 'Well,' says the Cavalier, 'and why is not my answer put in there?' How should I draw your answer, quoth the lawyer, without knowing what you can swear? Plague on your scruples, says the client again, 'pray do you the part of a lawyer, and draw me a sufficient answer; and let me alone to do the part of a gentleman, and swear it.'"

Should any of our hard-swearers feel troubled in their tender consciences, and fancy that they have "fouled their souls" by taking the iron-clad oath—for office—they are respectfully commended, for consolation, to the new Gospel dispensation above quoted. Let them only continue to be truly loil, and the loaves and fishes will continue to come.

X. P. G.

NEGROES IN CONGRESS.

Apropos of the refusal of Senator Sumner to designate a negro for a clerkship within his gift in the United States Senate, we quote from the Mobile Advertiser and Register as follows:

"The Radicals in and out of Congress are dreadfully alarmed lest some negro member from the South slips into Congress. They do not want any of his company there. A cushioned chair in the magnificent halls of Congress, with $5,000 a year salary, and mileage sufficient to make his yearly pay $8,000, is altogether too good, in Radical opinion, for the "colored" man and brother." So anxious are they on this subject, that an intelligent correspondent of the Charleston Courier informs us that they are prepared to buy off any black man who sets up for a candidate to Congress. Now, here is the best speculation "out" for smart and enterprising negroes who belong to "Leagues," and who do not choose to give up all the fat places to the "carpet-baggers."

Look at the figures, you ambitious colored men!

The Congress is elected for two years.—The pay is $8,000 a year, or $16,000 per term. Now, if the candidate can be elected, (and he canbe, if he will get his own people to vote for him, for lots of white folks will stand up to him in preference to any carpet-bagger, whether he be named Kellogg or Coon) he pockets $16,000 of Uncle Sam's money. If he makes a fair showing for an election and wants to sell out, then the Radicals will come down with the price. And what should the price be? Just $16,000, which it is worth to a cent, and which he could get if he went to Congress. It ought to be worth a little more, because if the black candidate made the trade he would lose all the glory and fun of being a Congressman—of dining with Sumner and sleeping with old Thad. Stevens.

Here then we offer a chance for a fortune to an ambitious colored man in the "Loyal Leagues." The correspondent referred to says:

'The National Radical Executive Committee have this matter in hand, and are using all their power in the South to keep down negro representation for the present, and till after the Presidential election. They will buy off the negro aspirants, and we learn from good authority that the funds are now being raised for that purpose. Any negro nominee for Congress can sell out his chance for a handsome fortune, because even if a single negro should take his seat in the House prior to the election of President, the Radical candidate will certainly be defeated.'"

MR. CHASE.—The new paper which has been talked of in Washington will, it is quite sure, be established. It will be backed up by a large capital, will be strongly Radical, and advocate the claims of Chief Justice Chase for the Presidency. The same backers are strongly considering the feasibility of establishing a first-class afternoon daily in Baltimore, having the same object in view.—Sun.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Our Noon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13, P. M.

It has transpired that Burlingame's mission to the European powers is to secure assistance against the Chinese rebels, who are pressing the Imperialists. Certain commercial privileges are tendered in compensation for material and political aid.

Ineffectual applications have been made, at Army Headquarters, for the Grant-Hancock correspondence.

Secretary Seward responds to the Ohio Governor's demand for a return of the papers ratifying the Howard amendment, that there is no law permitting the withdrawal of any documents from the Department, at the request of an individual or State. Therefore, the order ratifying, and the one rescinding, will both remain on file.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 P. M.

HOUSE.—After some unimportant matters, the rights of American citizens abroad were resumed. The speaker announced, by the regular order, that this bill would occupy the morning hour for a week. The whole matter was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Treasury, enclosing a draft of a bill, regulating trade with Spain; which was referred to the Committee of Commerce.

The case of John Young Brown, of Ky., was resumed. Mr Brown plead his own case. He was rejected, 108 to 43. Adjourned.

SENATE.—After some unimportant matters the case of Thomas, of Maryland, Senator, was resumed and discussed to adjournment.

FROM WASHINGTON—IMPEACHMENT DEAD.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13, P. M.

In the Reconstruction Committee, to-day, Stevens presented a resolution impeaching President Johnson for high crimes and misdemeanors. It was tabled by the following vote: Yeas—Bingham, Paine, Beaman and Halbard, Republicans, and Brooks and Beck Democrats. Nays—Stevens, Boutwell and Farnsworth. This is considered a finality to impeachment.

LARGE FIRE IN WILMINGTON.

WILMINGTON, Feb. 13, P. M.

A disastrous fire is raging on Market Street.—It originated in the store occupied by Charles Guthman.

It is feared the entire block, bounded by Market, Front, Dock and Second Streets, will be destroyed.

LATER.

WILMINGTON, 10½, P. M.

The fire is still raging, with unabated fury thus far.

The following establishments are burned: Charles Guthman, Clothing store; R. S. Waldran, Dry Goods; Dr. T. B. Carr, Dentist; Drs. Arrington and Everett, Dentists; H. H. Munson, Clothing store; A. Wrouski, Dry Goods; C. M. Vanorsdell, Photographer; Wilmington Post, newspaper; A. Evans, Grocer. On one section of the block the fire is beyond control.

It is thought it was the work of an incendiary. It is impossible to form an estimate of the loss. Telegraph operators ready to vacate their office.

DEFEAT OF THE ALABAMA CONSTITUTION, ETC.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13, P. M.

The following was received to-day:

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 13, P. M.

Hon. O. T. Patterson Senator from Tennessee: Ratification is defeated, by over 15,000 majority. What is the prospect of Sherman's Bill respecting Alabama?

(Signed) D. L. DALTON,
Governor's Secretary.

The discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau in Tennessee, Kentucky, and Maryland occurs on Saturday. Countermand of order improbable.

Meade telegraphs that he is not sure whether Alabama has accepted or rejected the Constitution. He is investigating whether the polls were not opened in certain counties—if not, he will order special elections.

Gen. W. T. Sherman is to be General of the Armies of the United States, by Brevet.

The President has called on Howard for a list of Bureau functionaries, with the law under which they were employed.

A reliable letter from Beirut, Syria, reports Gen. Breckenridge there on Jan. 1st., contemplating a journey through Syria. Being asked about returning to America, Gen. Breckenridge said he had no wish to become a martyr, and should not return, until he could do so with safety, but that no other country should become his home. The same letter states that Jacob Thompson, and several other leading parties in the South, during the late war, are wandering about Turkey.

PERPETRATORS OF CRIME IN THE SOUTH.—We observe, upon looking through our Southern exchanges, long lists of persons who have been sentenced by courts for petty crimes or offences, nearly all of whom were negroes. If the latter were better men than "rebels," why the vast disparity in the commissions of crimes? If it be said that the courts were partial, and punished negroes while white rebels were unwhipped of justice, why have not the military, under the reconstruction acts, interposed for the protection of hundreds upon hundreds of the "superior" black race?—Nat. Intel.

WHAT ALABAMA MAY EXPECT.—Greeley says: "Should the Constitution be thus deprived of a majority, we trust that Congress will take the manifest will for the deed, and restore Alabama to her forfeited place in the Union, admitting her members to seats and recognizing her as reorganized under her reformed Constitution."

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each Judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That, regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

MISCELLANEOUS.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make this branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 14 1868

[From the New Jerusalem Magazine.]

THERE'S AN OCEAN ABOVE US.

There's an ocean above us, so calm in its flow
That no sound from its depths breaks the silence below.
All the objects that fill it in grandeur appear,
Poured forth from the hand of Omnipotence there.

I gaze on its wonders with awe-stricken eyes,
In the path of its waves where eternity lies;
And, borne from the grossness of earth, see advance
The glory and pomp of that boundless expanse.

Far away, on the verge of that beautiful blue
Where the sun, sinking low, disappears from the view,
There are clouds sailing round, dressed in purple and gold,
More splendid than courts, or than monarchs of old.

And again, in the morning, what dazzling array
Heralds on in his brightness the sovereign of day,
As he duly goes forth on his mission of love,
Shedding down light and heat from that ocean above.

He is wafting his blessings to regions unknown;
And the planets are sailing with joy round his throne,
All illumined and warmed by a splendor so bright,
And filling their sails from that ocean of light.

And at midnight what star-ships encircle the sky,
Blazing out in the midst of the blue sea on high,
With their glories kept burning as onward they bound
O'er the deep waves that cover the trackless profound.

There the moon calmly sails in her [illegible] career;
And the Pleiades seek for their lost one so dear;
And Arcturus, all bright with his canvass of fire,
Rides aloft in his splendor still higher and higher.

All sublime they recede, all majestic advance,
A legion of worlds in that boundless expanse,
Sailing backwards or forwards, like ships, as they go
On the fathomless depths of our waters below.

There's an ocean above us; there's a Pilot that steers
His millions of orbs in their intricate spheres;
And creation is teeming with worlds that are new,
Meant to sail on that sea of immensity too.

SERGEANT BATES—HIS WALK FROM VICKSBURG TO WASHINGTON.—The Cairo (Illinois) Democrat gives some particulars of this feat of pedestrianism, as follows:

"Sergeant Gilbert H. Bates, of Edgeworth, Wisconsin, arrived in our city yesterday, en route for Vicksburg, where he intends to start upon a novel journey.

The Sergeant was a soldier of the Union army, was one of the first to enter the service, and one of the last to leave it. A Democrat from principle, he remained true to the party during all the conflict, and returned to his home an advocate of liberality in the treatment of the unfortunate people of the South. As a matter of course, he became a target at which all the Radicals in his neighborhood aimed their abuse. He was vilified and persecuted by men who had talked war, but never shouldered a musket.

In a controversy with a party of Radicals, who maintained that the Southern people were outlaws, who did not hesitate to take the life of any man, white or black, suspected of Unionism, the Sergeant denounced the assertion as a falsehood, and declared that he, an ex-soldier of the Union army, could march through the South, with the Union flag exposed, without a cent in his pocket, and not only escape bodily harm, but receive hospitable treatment from the Southern people, upon whom ignorant Radicalism was heaping so much abuse. A purse-heavy Radical offered to bet a certain amount that he would be killed if he undertook the journey, and in the event of the Sergeant's death agreed to pay the sum to the "foolhardy young man's family."

The banter was accepted by the Sergeant, and he is now en route for Vicksburg to begin the journey. He will travel from Vicksburg to Jackson; thence to Montgomery, Alabama; thence to Milledgeville, Georgia; thence to Columbia, South Carolina; thence to Raleigh, North Carolina; thence to Richmond; and then to Washington, at which place he is to arrive on or before the Fourth of July next.

The Sergeant is a poor man, described as devoid of conceit, and perfectly honorable in his conduct. Letters have been received by him from prominent gentlemen living in the cities on his march, inviting him to be their guest when he passes through, and tendering him a guard of honor."

"Yuba Dam" assigns sundry reasons for declining to be a candidate for the Presidency. Among them are:

I don't know how many stars there are on the American flag, and I don't care a cuss.

When my term of office should be terminated by pistol or poison, I don't want Mary Jane accused of stealing the silverware, the sheets, towels, table cloths, dippers, napkins and other table-ware of the White House.

I cannot bear the thought of having that angelic being compelled to show her old clothes for a living.

I don't want to be pumped every quarter of an hour by "Mack," of the Cincinnati Commercial.

A contributor to the "Independent" of this week ("M. C. A.") writes the following:

"Not many years ago the well-paid little to-do officers of the United States army used to cross the street to avoid meeting a young ex-Captain, turned farmer, because he "bored" them by asking them to use their influence to assist him in recovering his former position."

The ex-Captain referred to is subsequently stated to be U. S. Grant, now General of the Army, but the writer omits the reason of his losing "his former position." Will somebody supply this omission?—There are at least a hundred old army officers competent to do it.—World.

A certain doctor, when called to children, no matter what might be the symptoms, always prescribed for one and the same malady—worms. Being summoned one day to the bedside of a little boy, he gravely sat down, and, having felt the patient's pulse, looked up gravely through his spectacles, said to the mother in a solemn tone, "worms, madam; worms." To which the mother responded, "I tell you, doctor, the boy hain't got a single worm. He stumbled over a stick of wood and broke his leg, and I want it set quick." The doctor, not at all non plussed, but still determined to vindicate his theory, put on a very solemn look, as he said, "worms, madam, I assure you—worms in the wood!"

When an acquaintance says, "How are you?" and rushes by you without pausing for a reply, I wouldn't, if I was in your place, follow him more than a mile to tell him I was well.

At a colored party, Sambo asked Dinah if he should help her to some of the breast. "Now, ain't you 'shamed, Sambo, to say breast before the ladies? I'll take a piece of turkey bosom."

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

ON or before the 1st. of March, prox. the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The WESTERN VINDICATOR, as its name signifies, will be devoted to the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization; but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union—the preservation of the Constitution intact—the supremacy of the white race and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms $2 per annum.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel,	for one year,		$7 00
"	"	six months,	4.00
"	"	three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel,	for one year,		4 00
"	"	six months,	2 00
"	"	three months,	1 00
Weekly	"	for one year,	2.00
"	"	six months,	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people.—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEAD'QRS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 20th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 19th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1861, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS, &c.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32 to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest, call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise revenue," ratified on the 28th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
